

SPOTLIGHT ACADEMY

Have fun with us at the free Spotlight Academy on Sunday, October 2 at the Music Center!!

Talk to professionals and university faculty in a casual atmosphere; no pressure!!!
Parents and teachers are invited to attend. Invite your friends!!!

Learn about:

Navigating the High Seas of Higher Education

What should I look for in a college music program and teacher? Should I be getting in touch with teachers at the college before applying? How to narrow college choices; process for selecting best match; getting merit scholarships; and much more

What are College Audition Panels Looking For?

Presentation, Material Choices, How to Deal with Rejection, How to Dress Appropriately, Attitude, etc.

Classical Voice • Musical Theater • Jazz Instrumental • Classical Instrumental

The World of Dance Agents

Getting an agent; How to take great pictures; How to stand apart in an audition; What an agent looks for, etc.

How to get a gig and keep it - Networking, Attitude and Professionalism

Enough said 😊

Breathing life into your singing

The art of breath and presenting yourself in the audition room – tips for non classical and classical singers!!

How to deal with nerves

Let's learn together how to bring peace and calm to your auditions and performances

Everything you wanted to know about the Spotlight program but were afraid to ask!

Ask away!!! We're here!!! Let's dispel the myths!

Applying for YoungArts – the path to become a Presidential Scholar

If you are interested in attending this workshop, please email us at spotlight@musiccenter.org

Parents and teachers are welcome to attend!!!